Your Billing Rights

KEEP THIS NOTICE FOR FUTURE USE

This notice contains important information about your rights and our responsibilities under the Fair Credit Billing Act.

Notify Us in Case of Errors or Questions About Your Bill

If you think your bill is wrong, or if you need more information about a transaction on your bill, write us [on a separate sheet] at address listed below. Write to us as soon as possible. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the first bill on which the error or problem appeared. You can telephone us, but doing so will not preserve your rights.

In your letter, give us the following information:

- Your name and account number.
- The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Describe the error and explain, if you can, why you believe there is an error. If you need more information, describe the item you are not sure about.

11.2021
If you have authorized us to pay your credit card bill automatically from your savings or checking account, you can stop the payment on any amount you think is wrong. To stop the payment your letter must reach us three business days before the automatic payment is scheduled to occur.

Your Rights and Our Responsibilities After We Receive Your Written Notice

We must acknowledge your letter within 30 days, unless we have corrected the error by then. Within 90 days, we must either correct the error or explain why we believe the bill was correct.

After we receive your letter, we cannot try to collect any amount you question, or report you as delinquent. We can continue to bill you for the amount you question, including finance charges, and we can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit. You do not have to pay any questioned amount while we are investigating, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your bill that are not in question.

If we find that we made a mistake on your bill, you will not have to pay any finance charges related to any questioned amount. If we didn’t make a mistake, you may have to pay finance charges, and you will have to make up any missed payments on the questioned amount. In either case, we will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date that it is due.

If you fail to pay the amount that we think you owe, we may report you as delinquent. However, if our explanation does not satisfy you and you write to us within ten days telling us that you still refuse to pay, we must tell anyone we report you to that you have a question about your bill. And, we must tell you the name of anyone we reported you to. We must tell anyone we report you to that the matter has been settled between us when it finally is.

If we don’t follow these rules, we can’t collect the first $50 of the questioned amount, even if your bill was correct.

Special Rule for Credit Card Purchases

If you have a problem with the quality of property or services that you purchased with a credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the property or services.

There are two limitations on this right:

(a) You must have made the purchase in your home state or, if not within your home state within 100 miles of your current mailing address; and

(b) The purchase price must have been more than $50.

These limitations do not apply if we own or operate the merchant, or if we mailed you the advertisement for the property or services.

International Transactions & Exchange Rates

When you engage in an international transaction using your Card, if currency conversion is necessary, then the currency conversion will occur using either a government mandated exchange rate or a wholesale exchange rate, selected by Mastercard. The currency conversion rate Mastercard generally uses is the rate for the applicable currency that is in effect on the day the transaction occurred. However, in limited situations, particularly where Mastercard transaction processing is being delayed, Mastercard may instead use the rate for the applicable currency in effect on the day the transaction is processed.

A combination 1.1% Currency Conversion Assessment fee (CCA) and International Service Assessment (ISA) fee will also be charged.

Amendments and Change in Terms

We may from time to time amend these Terms & Conditions to the extent allowed by applicable federal and state law. We will notify you by mail of such amendments, and subject to the requirements of applicable law, any amendment to this Agreement will become effective at the time stated in such notice.

Use of your Card after receipt of notice of an amendment constitutes your acceptance of the change.
Additional Information about Your Mastercard Home Equity Rewards Card

Your Card must not be used for any unlawful purpose, including the purchase of goods or services prohibited by local law. We reserve the right, but are not obligated, to reject any internet gaming, gambling, lottery or similar transaction. Without limiting the foregoing, we reserve the right, but are not obligated, to reject any transaction we reasonably believe to be unlawful or attempted in connection with any transaction we reasonably believe to be unlawful. If any such transaction is not rejected, we are authorized to debit your account. We will not be liable if you engage in any illegal transaction.
